2011 PTSA Scholarships

The Marina High School PTSA is pleased to announce its annual scholarship program for seniors graduating in June 2011.

Philosophy

In addition to our commitment to high-quality education at Marina, the PTSA strongly supports continuing educational opportunities for all Marina students. These scholarships are funded through a variety of PTSA fundraising activities throughout the year, and are intended to help defray student expenses associated with this continuing education.

Eligibility Requirements

- 1) Student must be a member of the PTSA, for at least 4 years prior to Jan 1, 2011.
- 2) Student must have cumulative GPA of 2.5 or greater.
- 3) Student must actively be planning to attend a trade school, community college, or 4-year college or university beginning in the Fall of 2011.

Selection Process

Selection of scholarship recipients will be based on the information contained within this application, including the attached Teacher Recommendation form.

Deadline for Application Submission

School Career Center on or before Monday, April 24th by 4 P.M.
Only completed application packets will be considered.

Scholarship winners will be announced during the Seniors Honors ceremony in June.
